NALS OFFERS MORE EDUCATION THAN YOU CAN IMAGINE!

NALS listened and made significant adjustments in the amount of education offered to members. The schedule for the 2011 Educational Conference in Cincinnati has been changed based on research conducted by the NALS Think Tank. This research focused on what you, the members, want, as well as what the industry requires (see the following article “What Have We Learned About You?”). NALS is increasing the number of CLE hours available in Cincinnati next October by offering education in four core areas of law identified by the Think Tank’s research:

Litigation/Civil Law
Corporate Law
Estate Planning/Family Law
General Law

This change will increase the potential for your law firms to cover your costs based on the significant increased number of CLE hours offered specifically in your area of law. Start planning now for the 2011 NALS Education Conference at the Hyatt Regency Cincinnati on October 12-16, 2011. When NALS’ members speak -- NALS listens!!!

What Have We Learned About You?

By Jay Moore, NALS Communications Manager

As many of you know, NALS...the association for legal professionals has put together a Think Tank of individuals to evaluate the association and the profession to ensure that the two are aligned in the most efficient way possible. As part of the process, NALS seeks to learn what you want from it and will adjust its programs so you are getting the most out of your membership.

Recently, the NALS Think Tank surveyed 500 legal professionals online to gather information about their careers and involvement in professional associations. NALS is already using these findings to move forward by offering more CLE sessions included in your dues and increased CLE opportunities at the 2011 NALS Education Conference and National Forum. It is also focusing these additional CLE sessions on the areas of law in which you work. NALS will begin offering CLE tracks focused on the areas of law that were proven to be the most applicable to our membership and the industry.

We were able to narrow the fields of law to four general areas, with additional sub-areas that are more specific. The idea is not to have a group for each and every area of law, as we would not be able to efficiently service each of those groups in a way that would be beneficial to you. Instead, the idea is to give the NALS Education Committee some guidance and focus on the legal areas in which many of you work. NALS' programs will offer more specific and targeted education with a greater impact on your career. The broad areas of law that we will be focusing on are: Civil Litigation, Corporate Law, Estate Planning/Family Law, and General Practice.

The results of our survey showed that nearly 40% of respondents worked in litigation, with another 20% working in civil law. By grouping the areas of law that fall under corporate focus, we are targeting another 34% of respondents. Estate planning and family law areas, which have been grouped together, made up another 51%. The remaining specialty areas of law were added to a general practice group, allowing NALS the flexibility to offer education in many other areas of interest. Note that in designing the survey, we were aware that many legal professionals work in more than one area of law and so we allowed respondents to select multiple responses. This is why the results total more than 100%.

Identify the specialty area of law you work in the most. You may select more than one but please try to limit your responses to those you value the most.

A resounding 82% of respondents told us they value a professional association's relation to their profession and career. Approximately 60% responded that the number one thing they looked for in an association was overall education value. These overwhelming responses indicate to us that combining a greater education value with focused career-enhancing topics will result in a greater benefit from NALS membership dues.

When surveying the job titles of the respondents, we learned that 53% were paralegals, 23% were legal assistants, and 17% were legal secretaries. One area of concern was the 6% of respondents who are currently unemployed. NALS will continue to assist those that are unemployed through the NALS Career Center (careers.nals.org) and will continue to offer the dues waiver for those members who are unemployed at the time of their renewal. NALS understands the tough economic times and we will do everything that we can to assist our members who may be struggling.

We were happy to learn that nearly 35% of respondents have been in the legal field for more than 25 years, which shows how dedicated you are to your careers. We also learned that 60% volunteer for local or national charitable organizations, which tells us that you are interested in making a difference in your communities. NALS will continue to foster relationships with national charities to help provide you with opportunities to provide an impact on society.

How long have you been in the legal field?

The NALS Think Tank will continue to monitor the industry and recommend areas of improvement for the association. If you have any recommendations, please send an email to thinktank@nals.org. We will review your message and see what we can do to investigate further ways we can better serve you.

RECAP OF THE
59TH ANNUAL EDUCATION CONFERENCE & NATIONAL FORUM
October 21-24, 2010 🍂 Branson, Missouri

Fall for NALS! We also fell for Branson! Beautiful, picturesque Branson, Missouri, with three pristine lakes—Table Rock, Taneycomo, and Bull Shoals. The Chateau on the Lake is a gorgeous hotel with a friendly and helpful staff. We came from all over the U.S. to enjoy the mountain air and one another. Before settling down to networking, education, and fun at the conference, many of the NALS visitors came early to enjoy the offerings in Branson, including fishing and boating on the lakes, shopping, Silver Dollar City Amusement Park, shopping, the Titanic Museum, the many state-of-the-art theaters and shows, shopping, and the spa at the Chateau.

Bonus Leadership Training With David N. Horowitz

The conference began with a bonus session on leadership with David N. Horowitz, a collaborative law attorney from Phoenix, Arizona. David is the recipient of the 2005-2006 State Bar of Arizona CLE Award and the 2007 NALS of Phoenix Boss of the Year Award. He served as a Judge Pro Tempore in Maricopa County and is a regular presenter at the Arizona State Bar's course on Professionalism.

When we registered for this session, we were advised to wear comfortable clothing and closed-toed shoes. Some of us heard rumors of what would be taking place and several of the Arizona members had attended prior leadership training sessions conducted by David. When the session began, he explained we would be breaking boards (!), no one would be hurt, and no one would leave the room without having broken a board—with our hands no less! The Arizona team assisted with distributing pine boards (approximately 1" x 12" x 14") to each of us. We were instructed to choose one side of the board to write down two goals and then on the opposite side write two obstacles to our goals. David gave us three ways to break our boards: (1) the preferred way—with one of our hands (by the special technique, which was explained and practiced); (2) stomp on it with our foot; or (3) ask our supporter to do it for us with either technique (1) or technique (2). As David explained, professionals today face many barriers that can stop them from getting what they want in their professional as well as their personal lives. Often what stops us are the beliefs that we hold about what is possible that may limit what we are capable of accomplishing. In addition, we may lack the key strategies necessary to achieve the success we desire. We learned that when we tap into our full potential, learn key strategies, and adapt new beliefs about what we are capable of accomplishing, we can dramatically improve our results and “break through” to what we want to achieve. What we think might be difficult becomes easy. In our fast-paced, high-demand world of balancing personal and professional lives, we need tools that help us more quickly and easily achieve what we desire. The take-aways from this session are: (1) empowerment comes from within; (2) use the support system around us; (3) we have the ability to change our situation; (4) celebrate the success of others; and (5) it is not failure when we don't accomplish a task the first time or if we use a different method or technique.

Regional Meetings

Individual regional meetings were held following the afternoon education sessions giving each region an opportunity to come together for networking and to take care of business.

Optional Event

The special optional event for Thursday was Dolly Parton's Dixie Stampede Dinner and Show, an action-packed extravaganza appropriate for all ages and a four-course dinner complete with dessert. The show included friendly competition, beautiful horses, trick riding, a stampede of Longhorn steer, music, dancing, outstanding special effects, and audience participation. President Patricia E. Infanti, President-elect Kathleen Amirante, and Michael Lewis (the husband of one of the Mississippi members) joined in one of the acts down in the arena. The show concluded with a video patriotic presentation by Dolly Parton and a salute to the Colors.

Opening Keynote Session

The opening session began with a warm welcome by President Patricia E. Infanti, PP, PLS, and acknowledgement of the hard work the NALS Staff and NALS Education Task Force had done to bring the top-notch sessions offered at the conference. President Patti then introduced the 2010-11 Board, followed by the NALS Past Presidents in attendance. These extraordinary women included Anita Cottrell, PP, PLS (1994-95, New York); Deborah Nickerson, PP, PLS (1998-99, Maine); Marie Ringholz, PP, PLS (2000-01, Georgia); Jill Hall, PP, PLS, CLA (2001-02, Arkansas); September Holmblad, PP, PLS (2002-03, Minnesota); Mary Jo Denman, PP, PLS (2005-06, Georgia); Cathy Hankins, PP, PLS (2006-07, Ohio); Dee Beardsley, PP, PLS (2008-09, California); and Julie Abernathy, PP, PLS (2009-10, Texas).

Immediate Past President and Nominations Chair Julie A. Abernathy introduced Kathie Amirante, PP, PLS (Michigan), who will serve as the 2011-12 President, and Patricia E. Infanti (Pennsylvania), who will serve as the Immediate Past President, and announced that she would serve as the 2011-12 Foundation Chair. Julie then introduced the candidates for the 2011-12 year.

Each year three outstanding legal professionals and members of this association are selected as finalists for the Award of Excellence. The NALS Award of Excellence is the highest award that can be given to a NALS member. President Patti introduced the three Award of Excellence finalists, who were presented with a plaque:

Mary Jo Denman, PP, PLS (Atlanta, Georgia)
Kathy Sieckman, PP, PLS, CLA (Phoenix, Arizona)
Peggy Sullivan, PP, PLS (Kansas City, Missouri)

The final announcement of this year's Award of Excellence winner was made at the Recognition Luncheon on Saturday.

The next group to be introduced were those who would never be able to attend a NALS conference in the same capacity again. They were the members who attended their very first NALS conference and included: Honey Brown (Mississippi), Karen Caldwell (Georgia), Julie Cowles (Michigan), Jamie Early (South Carolina), Lita Ferrell (Tennessee), Janet Gordon (Arkansas), Victoria Hellmer (Tennessee), Annette Jeltama (Michigan), Candace Johnson (Arkansas), Laura Jousma (Michigan), Juanita Lee (Missouri), Patricia Mart (Missouri), Joyce Morgan (Arkansas), Carl Morrison (Oklahoma), Judy Reid (Arkansas), Diane Stanley (Texas), Janet VandenBerg (Michigan), and Tené Wansley (Mississippi).

It was announced that the NALS Marketplace and Exhibit Hall would open following the keynote session. We were encouraged to meet and talk with all the exhibitors and sponsors, and to partake of the Exhibitor Luncheon provided with our registration. This year's sponsors included Legal Directories Publishing Company, Avery Dennison, Liberty Mutual, Sam's Club, and Avansic. The exhibitors were Firefly Legal, Scentsy, UPS, and Art Bookbinders of America. Coffee break sponsors were Sam's Club on Friday and Delmar/Cengage Learning on Saturday.

President Patti then invited Foundation Chair Faynell Poe, PP, PLS, to introduce the opening keynote speaker, Erick Burton, CSP, who was brought to us courtesy of the NALS Foundation. Erick Burton is known as “The Leadership Accelerator™,” president of Burton Resources, and the founder of the Burton Leadership Center near Kansas City, Missouri. He has partnered with hundreds of corporations and associations as a professional speaker, facilitator, and executive coach. Erick is the author of Blueprint for Success—Powerhouse Professionals and Have You Filed Your Flight Plan? He has attained the National Speakers Association's Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) designation, the speaking profession's international measure of professional platform skill. Erick's presentation was interactive. He said that thinking big is not living big and our approach to life is key—attitude is everything. We should seize the opportunity to change things around us for the better. It is people who make history, not the other way around. We should not let our organization or our professional growth stand still—we need to take charge! Erick concluded in telling us that it all comes down to choice and that we should not be prisoners of our past, but the architect of our lives.

Executive Coaching Session

This was a special ticketed event with Erick Burton, CSP. The experience was exciting and enlightening, but you had to be there since what was discussed was much like Vegas—what goes on there stays there. Those who took advantage of this opportunity went away thinking of people who should have been there but weren't and how to apply what had been learned within the association and at work.

NALS Foundation Live Auction

The live auction was fun and exciting. There were many, many great items up for bid, including beautiful jewelry. The NALS auctioneer, Leslie Keys, PLS (Georgia), revved up the competition and got almost everyone to empty their wallets for the NALS Foundation.

Welcome Party

The welcome party was everyone's idea of NALS fun: good food, good music, and lots of dancing. Our DJ, Kerry Jackson, played enough of a variety of music to suit all tastes. We danced until we dropped and left happy.

Saturday, October 23

Recognition Luncheon

At the Recognition Luncheon President Patti welcomed everyone and acknowledged the hard work and dedication of the Branson task force members who had volunteered to make this conference a success. As President Patti recognized the members of the task force for their service in obtaining speakers and coordinating help with registration, NALS Education Director Jeanne Shaw, PP, PLS, presented certificates of appreciation to: Michelle Haughey, PP, PLS (Missouri); Danny Looney (Arkansas); Marsha Smitherman, PP, PLS (Missouri); Peggy Sullivan, PP, PLS (Missouri); and Cheryl Summerhill, PLS (Arkansas).

In November of 2009, NALS began the Think Big campaign of “Recruit five new members and get your national dues waived.” Any member who recruits five new members in their same class of membership within a 12-month period will have their national dues waived for the year. President Patti announced that we have two members who fall within that category and recognized them: Stephanie Ottino of Corpus Christi ALP (Texas) and Jan Dear of Metro LPA (Mississippi).

This past March in Tulsa President Patti announced the reopening of Lifetime Membership. President Patti recognized the two new Life Members joining this year: Nancy Honer, PP, PLS (Oregon) and Dolores Oliver, PLS (Michigan). President Patti also recognized all NALS Life Members attending the luncheon.

President Patti acknowledged members in attendance for receiving their CLE Award this past year: Sharon Davis, PLS (Arkansas); Kimberley Elliott, PP (Louisiana); Delana Freouf, PLS (Arizona); Rita Ann Gilson, PP, PLS (Pennsylvania); Tara Hughes, PP, PLS, CP (Arizona); Patricia Infanti, PP, PLS (Pennsylvania); Tanya James, PLS (Arizona); Jeanice Johnston, PP, PLS, TSC (Texas); Karen McElroy, PP, PLS (Arizona); Peggy Sullivan, PP, PLS (Missouri); Cheryl Summerhill, PLS (Arkansas); and Margaret Wilson, PLS (Arkansas).

NALS Certification Director Doris Compton, PP, PLS, recognized several certification groups in attendance:

- (1) Individuals achieving certification since March 2010: Laura Jousma, PLS (Michigan); Gina Knight, PLS (Mississippi); and Cindy Maze, PLS (Alabama).
- (2) All ALSs, PLS, and Professional Paralegals.
- (3) All exam administrators.
- (4) Individuals who renewed their Professional Paralegal certification: Kathleen Amirante, PP, PLS (Michigan); Susan Ellis, PP, PLS (Colorado); Rita Ann Gilson, PP, PLS (Pennsylvania); Mary Hand, PP, PLS (Arkansas); and Vernelle Collins, PP, PLS (Arizona).
- (5) Individual who renewed their PLS certification: Kathleen Amirante, PP, PLS (Michigan); Donice Alford, PP, PLS (Tennessee); Marina Baker, PLS (Washington); Mariann Fletcher, PLS (Washington); Rita Ann Gilson, PP, PLS (Pennsylvania); Mary Hand, PP, PLS (Arkansas); Catherine Hankins, PP, PLS (Ohio); Tina Hurley, PP, PLS (Texas); Patricia Infanti, PP, PLS (Pennsylvania); and Brooke Nicholson, PLS (Colorado).

Doris concluded certification recognitions by stating that these individuals are truly outstanding and an inspiration to all members as they continue to learn and grow with their profession.

Next on the agenda was the Award of Excellence, the highest honor NALS bestows on a member. President Patti explained the criteria for the award; and thanked this year's distinguished judges: Ken Rogers, Esq.; Josh Neally; and Lisa Taylor. All past winners of the Award of Excellence were asked to stand and be recognized: Karen McElroy, PP, PLS; Jeannie Shaw, PP, PLS; Karen Kuhn, PP, PLS; Patricia Infanti, PP, PLS; Betty Wells, PP, PLS, TSC; Marlene Oiler, PP, PLS; Debbie Nickerson, PP, PLS; and Janice Miller, PP, PLS, CPS. President Patti asked this year's Award of Excellence finalists to stand and be recognized: Mary Jo Denman, PP, PLS; Kathy Sieckman, PP, PLS, CLA; and Peggy Sullivan, PP, PLS. She also asked those who have been a NALS Award of Excellence finalist to stand and be recognized. President Patti then announced the winner of the NALS 2010 Award of Excellence:

Mary Jo Denman, PP, PLS

Following comments by Mary Jo Denman, President Patti concluded the luncheon by congratulating all the newly certified members and Mary Jo Denman, the 2010 Award of Excellence Winner.

Closing Keynote Speaker

NALS Foundation Chair Faynell Poe thanked everyone for their support of the Foundation during the conference and reminded us of the treat we would have in store at the Foundation Gala later in the evening, the all-male a cappella group, the Missouri State Beartones. She also reminded us that a beautiful fire agate necklace would be presented to one of the conference registrants at the Gala. Faynell then introduced our closing keynote speaker, David N. Horowitz, who had presented the bonus leadership training session that opened the conference. His closing keynote presentation centered around a very moving and personal story for David, with emphasis on the following statement: “Millions come to us hoping we will manage their legal issues. They expect us to use our experience to make their important concerns seem easy and ordinary. They want us to do anything to get the job done.” His message to us was that we have a duty not to let one tragedy stop us from doing what needs to be done. David left us with ten “Gifts” to inspire us in our lives:

1. You have the right to be hopeful. Life does not cease to be funny through serious times nor does life cease to be serious during funny times.
2. Accepting help is your gift to the person who is helping. To deny them that opportunity is to shove away their gift.
3. Most things aren't even important let alone really important.
4. You can manage the unimaginable.
5. Heroes are ordinary people who exhibit courage and calm in extraordinary situations.
6. Even a miraculous achievement can feel easy and graceful if you lay all of the groundwork first.
7. Self-care is an essential element of caring for others.
8. There are millions of people in your age group. What you do is worth celebrating.
9. Good judgment comes from experience and experience comes from bad judgment.
10. Stop at nothing to get the job done. Leave nothing unsaid or undone to get the job done.

NALS Foundation Fundraising Closing

Before the Foundation fundraising closing, Reba Peden, PP, PLS, Marketing Chair, announced that $1300 had been donated to the Mountain Country Homes of Hope.

Following that announcement, Foundation Chair Faynell Poe spoke on the many endeavors and achievements of the Foundation. She announced that the Foundation had awarded grants in excess of $24,000 during the 2009-10 fiscal year and with a focus on education and certification, the Foundation had assisted chapters, states, and regions with providing quality programs for the members, including a grant to NALS underwriting the May 20, 2010, and August 19, 2010, Webinars titled “Think Big—Insight to the Knowledge Needed to Serve at the National Level.” That same year, the Foundation heeded the challenge to “engage” and began looking to the future of NALS. Funding was provided for the NALS Think Tank, a group of individuals working together to ensure the continued success of NALS. Also, scholarships were awarded to nine Future Leaders to attend the 2011 Professional Development Conference. Faynell announced that this year the Foundation Trustees anticipate awarding even more funds for grants to chapters, states, and regions for their education and certification programs and will continue to sponsor the NALS Jett Awards and fund nationally acclaimed keynote speakers at both conferences, as well as maintain the NALS Foundation Learning Center. Faynell thanked the conference attendees for our generous support, as well as all of the supporters who were not able to be at the conference. Faynell concluded by thanking Past President Dee Beardsley, Immediate Past President Julie Abernathy, and President Patricia Infanti for allowing her to chair the Foundation for the past three years.

The Foundation drawings began with the drawing for the Circle necklace, which included the names of all Circle donors. The winner of the Circle necklace was Brenda Simmons, PP, PLS (Alabama). Drawings were held for the various prizes and the prizes claimed by the winners. Next were the drawings for the premium prizes. Joanne Davis, PP, PLS (Oklahoma), won the emerald ring, and Karen McElroy, PP, PLS (Arizona), won the diamond necklace.

NALS Foundation Gala

NALS Foundation Chair Faynell Poe welcomed us to the Foundation Gala and announced that $17,110 had been raised from the Foundation auctions and sweepstakes drawings over the weekend. The NALS Gala necklace was awarded to Deborah Waters (Florida), the iPod to Barbara LeCaptain, PLS (Wisconsin), and the Kindle to Kathy Cusack, PLS (Washington). The Foundation Gala was fun and exciting. We enjoyed the dinner and each other’s company. The members of the Missouri State Beartones, our entertainment for the evening, joined us at various tables for dinner. Following dinner each table cheered the ones who had sat at their table as each of the men was introduced from the stage. The Beartones are an all-male a cappella group from Missouri State University in Springfield, Missouri. The group was formed in 2001 and has since traveled and performed extensively in the Midwest and been invited to sing all over the country. The Beartones are a not-for-profit student-run organization designed to entertain music lovers from all genres. We enjoyed their performance tremendously.

Young Legal Professionals Reception

A reception for the Young Legal Professionals group was held in the hotel lounge.

Sunday, October 24

Bonus Session With Jay Moore

In this bonus session, Jay Moore invited us to “join the conversation.” Jay is the communications manager for NALS, serves as the staff liaison to the Marketing and @Law Committees, and assists the Strategic Planning Committee. This year Jay also works with the NALS Think Tank to help plan for the future of NALS. He owns his own graphic design and marketing consultation business, Letter 10 Productions. In his presentation, Jay said that Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, YouTube, Flickr, and whatever the latest and greatest social media service is out there all work along one principle . . . have a conversation. In this session we looked at how we can utilize social media in our personal and professional lives to better our careers.

Leadership and Education Sessions

The concurrent leadership and education sessions offered at the conference covered a variety of topics and were outstanding as usual and gave us the opportunity to earn a possible 18.0 hours of continuing education credits. The ability to be in more than one place at a time would have been a definite advantage in deciding which sessions to attend. In addition to the sessions described above, the offerings included (in order of appearance on the conference schedule):

Corporate Sponsor Session—Avery presented by Karl Schoen. Karl Schoen, a consumer education specialist with Avery Dennison, a NALS corporate sponsor, talked about time-saving tips, image-enhancing ideas, and cost-saving options through the use of Avery products. Avery software and formatting solutions are designed to help us make the most of our time, put a professional polish on mailings with a few easy steps, and tips for producing professional presentations and meeting materials.

The Government’s Civil Litigation Alternative for Vaccine-Related Injuries—The National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program presented by Andrew D. Downing, a partner in Rhodes Hieronymus who specializes in vaccine injury litigation before the Court of Federal Claims. Drew is also an adjunct faculty member at the University of Tulsa. Vaccines save lives by preventing disease, and a majority of people who receive them have no serious problems. However, vaccines, like all medicines, are not free of risk and sometimes these same, well-known vaccinations can cause side effects or adverse reactions with life-threatening consequences. The National Vaccine Injury Compensation program (VICP) was created as a no-fault alternative to the traditional tort remedy of suing the physician or drug manufacturer for damages sustained as a result of an adverse reaction. Drew covered the framework and requirements of the VICP, who may receive benefits, how the VICP works, and some of the myths and truths about vaccines and the VICP that have been so prominent in the news lately.

Controlling ESI Costs—Avansic with Dr. Gavin W. Manes, a nationally recognized expert in e-discovery and digital forensics, who has published many papers and given hundreds of presentations on the subject. He discussed the variety of reasons for high e-discovery costs and ways to reduce those expenses, which includes practical steps that can be taken at any point during e-discovery, from preservation to processing to production. Dr. Manes included a section on the proper use of de-duplication.

Intellectual Property 101: What Do You Really Need to Know About Patents, Trade Secrets, Trademarks, and Copyrights? with Amy C. Kelly, Esq., and Benjamin P. Tabor, Esq. Amy is currently with the Kansas City law firm of Shook Hardy & Bacon and serves as a guest speaker regarding intellectual property and trademark matters. Ben is an associate in Shook Hardy & Bacon’s intellectual property practice group. As the competition in the world economy continues to change, a familiarity with the many common forms of intellectual property is crucial to success in today’s commercial environment. The speakers provided useful fundamental information on how to identify and protect intangible intellectual property assets; described the various forms of intellectual property; and discussed ways for clients to protect those assets. The speakers also addressed patentable inventions, trade secrets, trademarks, and copyrights, and described the roles that legal professionals play in the process.

The Legal Assistant's Guide When Good Clients Venture Into the Music Business [or as the Beatles would say, "I Want to Hold Your Hand"] with Nolen W. Berry, Esq.. Mr. Berry is semiretired from the active practice of law and devotes most of his time acting as one of the managing members of the Bob-Nolen Agency, L.L.C., which provides national booking and marketing services for musical artists. He is also president of BB&C Music Publishing Company, which deals in the general business of music publishing by acquiring original musical compositions, entering publishing contracts with songwriters, promoting commercial use of such songs, licensing song copyrights, and collecting and administering copyright royalties. Mr. Berry's presentation was designed to help legal assistants understand the roles, relationships, and basic contracts between performers, venues, management, songwriters, music publishers, sponsors, investors, and performing rights societies [or as Bruce Springsteen would put it, "Working on a Dream"]. The session also answered the question of what happens when the client enters into one of those unfamiliar roles and gave examples and additional outside resources.

Crime Scene Investigation and Computer Forensics with Sergeant Sean Barnwell. Sergeant Barnwell is a Missouri Certified Police Officer with the Branson Police Department and assigned to Criminal Investigations. He currently specializes in financial and technology-based investigations. In this session Sergeant Barnwell discussed crime scene investigation techniques from the past to the present and the CSI Factor and its relationship to current crime scenes. Demonstrations were conducted on crime scene processing techniques. He said that computer forensics are adapting to our ever-changing technological environment and discussed these changes and how they affect a criminal case.

Windows 7 with Preston Yoder. Preston has worked in the computer field for over twenty-five years and is currently with Lindsey Software Systems. The main focus of this very enlightening session was to bring users up to speed on the Windows 7 operating system. The discussion included information on the differences between Windows 7 and previous versions; how to configure Windows 7 to work the way we want; the differences in the four versions of the program that are available for purchase; how to protect computers from viruses and spyware; how to download and get programs that will both protect and enhance the performance of a computer; and much, much more.

Estate Planning with Emily J. Kembell, Esq. Emily is an associate with Carnahan, Evans, Cantwell & Brown, P.C., in that firm's estate planning practice group. She concentrates her practice in the areas of estate planning and administration, estate gift and income taxation, and probate. During her presentation, she discussed the "standard" provisions of forms utilized by virtually every trust agreement and the failure to rethink the provisions that may produce unexpected and undesirable results. Emily also discussed how many of these provisions are impacted by changing law and circumstances and alternatives to the boilerplate provisions that should be considered.

FDIC Rules and Regulations with James D. LaPierre, Regional Director of the FDIC's Kansas City Region, Division of Supervision and Consumer Protection, with oversight of all aspects of risk management and consumer compliance supervisory activities for the region. This session provided a general overview of the FDIC, information about the current market conditions and emerging banking/regulatory issues, and a brief summary of the various government programs designed to stabilize the financial sector. James concluded with a general Q&A on safety and soundness and consumer compliance issues.

Bankruptcy Basics: What Every Legal Professional Should Know with Dan R. Nelson, a partner with the firm of Lathrop & Gage, LLP, in their Springfield, Missouri, office. Dan's practice areas are bankruptcy, creditors' rights, and business litigation. He is the former law clerk to the Honorable Almon H. Maus of the Missouri Court of Appeals, Southern District, and has been a member of the Panel of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Trustees for the Western District of Missouri since 1988. During his presentation, Dan provided information on key bankruptcy issues, including commencement of the case, the automatic stay, property of the estate and exempt property, reaffirmation agreement and avoidable transfers, and dischargeability of debts.

Ethics with Melissa DeLacerda, Esq. Melissa is engaged in the private practice of law in Stillwater, Oklahoma. The majority of her years in private practice have been as a solo practitioner with a heavy emphasis in family law. She is the chairperson of the Professional Responsibility Commission of the Oklahoma Bar Association, which is the tribunal that disciplines lawyers. Melissa was included in a book entitled Leading the Way: A Look at Oklahoma's Pioneering Women Lawyers, which featured women attorneys from before statehood through publication of the book in 2003 and highlighted their accomplishments. The session was interactive and geared to legal support staff. Melissa began with a discussion of her involvement in the attorney discipline process and the principles as they apply to non-lawyer staff members. She talked with the audience about the realities of how staff members might deal with resolving conflicts such as attorney impairment, mishandling of client funds, and the bar complaint process. During her presentation she included relevant case histories and provided insight on practical solutions for appropriate actions when staff is confronted with sensitive issues.

Immigration Law Basics and Why Our Current System Is Considered Broken presented by Arminda Ferguson, Esq. Arminda is a senior attorney with the Ferguson Immigration Law firm with offices in Rogers, Arkansas, and Branson, Missouri, and has dedicated her law practice exclusively to immigration and nationality law. This presentation included an overview of the immigrant visa petition process, Department of State visa bulletin, consular process versus adjustment of status, how an illegal entry and a criminal record affect obtaining lawful status, and suggestions on how our system could function better.

A Final Thank You

Special thanks to our corporate sponsors, exhibitors, and advertisers for their contributions to the success of this conference: Aflac (corporate sponsor advertiser), Art Bookbinders of America, Inc. (exhibitor), Avansic (advertiser and exhibitor), Avery Dennison (corporate sponsor exhibitor and advertiser), Carolina Marketing Devices, Inc. (advertiser), Delmar/Cengage Learning (coffee break sponsor), Esquire Solutions (exhibitor), Firefly Legal (exhibitor), Legal Directories Publishing Company, Inc. (corporate sponsor advertiser), Liberty Mutual (corporate sponsor advertiser), Paralegal Today (advertiser), Region 6 (advertiser), Sam's Club (corporate sponsor exhibitor and coffee break sponsor), Scentsy, and UPS (exhibitor).

A very special thanks to our Missouri members; Executive Director Tammy Hailey, CAE; and the Resource Center staff (Saundra Bates, Diana Price, Jennifer King, and Jay Moore) for creating an outstanding “Fall for NALS” conference! You rock!

After-Conference Report on Hashtag #NALS10

Following the Branson conference, Jay Moore gathered the stats from the conference and reported the following from Twitter posts using the hashtag #NALS10. We had 39 people use the tag for a total of 644 mentions in tweets. This led to 337,492 exposures over 6 days. Kristina Duncan (legalninja@twitter.com) once again led the way with 116 tweets for 215,760 exposures (not bad since she wasn't at the conference!). Jay Moore posted 70 times using NALStweet for 40,250 exposures and Brynne Williamson posted 99 times for 26,730 exposures. These were the main number contributors on exposures, but we had great participation from members as Misty Lewis posted 55 times, Patricia Infanti had 58, Tammy Hailey had 36, Kathy Sieckman had 35, and Julie Abernathy had 21 posts. Jay says this is up substantially from previous years when we relied on outsiders to push the messages and this year we had a lot of exposure and really only used NALS members with only a couple of large follower people ReTweeting to push the message. Tammy Hailey says this really helps the members not in attendance feel a part of what is going on, as well as connects those in attendance. President Patricia Infanti commented that this will help show members the purpose behind Twitter and drive them to the NALS Web site to read the Tweets. If you would like to join us in keeping the momentum going between conferences, use the hashtag #NALS when you Tweet.

Recap of Region 6 Meeting Branson, MO – October 21, 2010

Director Hurley welcomed everyone in attendance and recognized those members in attendance serving on the NALS 2010-11 Leadership Team.

Director Hurley gave the revised Financial Report from this year's Region 6 Conference and discussed what money will be needed for this year's Think Big incentive prizes. Discussion was held among the members about an additional $500 donation to the Foundation from the R6 conference proceeds; however, the members in attendance decided to keep the money in the Region 6 checking account.

This year's Think Big campaigns were announced. The End of Year prize will be awarded to the state and local chapter with the highest retention percentage and both will receive a registration to the 2011 Region 6 Conference. Currently, Missouri has the highest retention percentage because they've increased their membership numbers. Four local chapters are also eligible for increasing their numbers: Heart of America LPA (MO); Tri-County LSPA (MS); Lubbock LPA (TX); and Springfield Area LSP (MO). Several other chapters are also in the running behind the top 4 chapters. Region 6 is currently in 5th place overall in the Think Big national campaign.

Individual Think Big incentives were also announced for September 1st to February 1st. Two drawings for $50 gift cards will be held from members whose names will go into a drawing for completing different tasks. All Year Prizes will also be held for three $50 gift cards from new, renewing, and sponsoring members from March 1st to February 1st.

A check in the amount of $1,348.27 was given to Mississippi LPA's President, Misty Lewis, PP, PLS as the hosting chapter representing one-half of the profits from this year's conference. Checks in the amount of $125 were also given to Arkansas, Missouri, and Oklahoma from this year's profits which was decided by the members in attendance at the R6 meeting.

Logo items still for sale were discussed and it was agreed to reduce the price of the NALS neon green caps from $10 to $5. The Think Big window clings were available for chapters to take back for their members.

Information was passed out regarding the 2011 Region 6 Conference in Amarillo. Additional information and registration forms will be available in Tulsa in March 2011. There will be an off-site event included in the registration fee and an optional event offered on Saturday night in Palo Duro Canyon which will include the outdoor play "Texas."

Discussion was held regarding a gift from Region 6 for incoming NALS President Kathie Amirante, PP, PLS from Michigan (details are available from the Region 6 Director).

After announcements, the meeting was adjourned.

INSTRUCTIONS TO ACCESS OLC/OLSG: Members must first go login as a Member and enter your login name and password. If you have not registered as a member just go to the “Welcome” tab at the top of the NALS web page (it’s a drop down tab with “Member Log In” – click there). There are complete instructions to login as a member or to register as a member to access all the membership services. After you login as a member you will see a page with member accessed information. Simply scroll down to Online Learning Center (on the left-side of the page), click and you have now entered the OLC properly! The Online Learning Center page comes up with instructions, but you can simply scroll down and type in a “User Name” (user name does not have to match your Internet user name) and click “Connect,” which will take you to the “Lobby.” Click on “Show Rooms” and double click on “OnlineLearningCenter” and, voila, you’re there! You can increase the size of the screen by clicking on the four arrows button (second button from the right at the bottom). You can increase the size of your font by clicking on “Options” (upper left, second button from left) then “Font Size.” You can change the color of your responses by clicking on the four colors button (third button from the left). Yes, we do have emoticons and sounds which can be entered, but, particularly the sounds, can be distracting and my intention is to get you in, discuss the topic, and let you go within the allotted time. Also, you must participate every three to four minutes or you will be “bumped” out.

INSTRUCTIONS TO ACCESS WEBINARS: Register for NALS Webinar by simply going to the NALS website and under “Learn” (tab with drop down choices at top of NALS web page), click on “WebEd.” This will take you to the screen to register for the webinar you wish to attend. “How to” directions are on this page and descriptions of the webinars offered. Scroll down and click on the registration link (the title of the webinar) and it will take you through the registration process. The webinar registration is a two-fold process. The initial registration lets you select the webinars you are interested in attending and submitting your payment information. When that information is processed, participants are sent a WebEd invitation that you need to complete before the registration is finalized. When you have completed this second “invitation,” a subsequent e-mail is sent to the participants, which contains access information to the webinars. NOTE: You can access any webinar through both the Internet and the audio connection (with any telephone) OR you can simply access the webinar presentation (without viewing the PowerPoint presentation) by simply calling and connecting to the audio portion of the presentation. You can do this from any telephone anywhere! But you still need to register for the webinar (even if you will only be listening to the audio portion of the program).

NALS Mission

NALS is dedicated to enhancing the competencies and contributions of members in the legal services profession. NALS Accomplishes its mission and supports the public interest through:

- Continuing legal education and resource materials
- Networking opportunities at the local, state, regional and national levels
- Commitment to a Code of Ethics and professional standards
- Professional certification programs and designations

NALS Code of Ethics & Professional Responsibility

Members of NALS are bound by the objectives of this association and the standards of conduct required of the legal profession.

Every member shall:

- Encourage respect for the law and administration of justice
- Observe rules governing privileged communications and confidential information
- Promote and exemplify high standards of loyalty, cooperation, and courtesy
- Perform all duties of the profession with integrity and competence
- Pursue a high order of professional attainment

Integrity and high standards of conduct are fundamental to the success of our professional association. This Code is promulgated by NALS and accepted by its members to accomplish these ends.

Canon 1. Members of this association shall maintain a high degree of competency and integrity through continuing education to better assist the legal profession in fulfilling its duty to provide quality legal services to the public.

Canon 2. Members of this association shall maintain a high standard of ethical conduct and shall contribute to the integrity of the association and the legal profession.

Canon 3. Members of this association shall avoid a conflict of interest pertaining to a client matter.

Canon 4. Members of this association shall preserve and protect the confidences and privileged communications of a client.

Canon 5. Members of this association shall exercise care in using independent professional judgement and in determining the extent to which a client may be assisted without the presence of a lawyer and shall not act in matters involving professional legal judgment.

Canon 6. Members of this association shall not solicit legal business on behalf of a lawyer.

Canon 7. Members of this association, unless permitted by law, shall not perform paralegal functions except under the direct supervision of a lawyer and shall not advertise or contract with members of the general public for the performance of paralegal functions.

Canon 8. Members of this association, unless permitted by law, shall not perform any of the duties restricted to lawyers or do things which lawyers themselves may not do and shall assist in preventing the unauthorized practice of law.

Canon 9. Members of this association not licensed to practice law shall not engage in the practice of law as defined by statutes or court decisions.

Canon 10. Members of this association shall do all other things incidental, necessary or expedient to enhance professional responsibility and participation in the administration of justice and public service in cooperation with the legal profession.

NALS President-elect
Kathleen R. Amirante, PP, PLS
Continues to Challenge YOU to Change your association. Change yourself.

and join the 2011-2012 Leadership Team!

THINK BIG! Be part of the 2011-2012 NALS Leadership Team and take an active role in leadership service. No prior experience is necessary! Participation on a NALS committee will enhance your personal goals and professional growth, plus give you a clearer understanding of the inner workings of NALS.

Most of the NALS committees hold monthly meetings in the NALS Online Learning Center and communicate with each other via e-mail, an economical and “green” way to function as a committee. Though not mandatory, the national committees are encouraged to meet at the Professional Development Conference in March (March 10-12, 2011) and at the National Forum in Cincinnati, Ohio (October 13-16, 2011).

It is thrilling and exciting to be part of the NALS Leadership Team. You will have FUN getting to know other NALS members from around the country and will gain a sense of pride and accomplishment seeing your work come to fruition. Accept the challenge to make a difference!

@Law: This committee oversees the publication of NALS’ quarterly magazine and the monthly publication, e-Learn@NALS, a part of The NALS docket. The committee’s responsibilities include identifying and securing suitable authors for articles, proofreading articles, proofreading full magazine text, and preparing monthly editions of e-Learn@NALS.

Certifying Board: This committee consists of at least nine NALS members who serve for at least two years and who must be a PP or PLS in good standing. Two non-NALS members also serve on the Certifying Board. Although a PLS may fall under the category of “voluntary recertification,” she or he must recertify in order to serve on the Certifying Board. In order to receive exam-related training (including statistics and exam preparation), it is imperative that during the two-year term Certifying Board members are available to attend each Professional Development conference held in Tulsa in March. Members of the Certifying Board are prevented from teaching any subject related to the certification exams while on the Certifying Board and for two years after their term expires. The Certifying Board is responsible for all issues directly related to the certification exams.

Education: This committee provides educational programs for NALS members, including legal training courses and certification study materials. There are two subcommittees that fall under the Education Committee umbrella: (1) the Education Products subcommittee is responsible for preparing and updating Mock Exams and Resource Manuals for various NALS certifications; and (2) the WebEd subcommittee is responsible for the topics and speakers for NALS webinar programs throughout the year. Some of the projects the Education Committee is responsible for include: arranging for education and professional development track sessions and speakers at the Professional Development Conference; arranging for education speakers at the National Forum; coordinating the Online Learning Center topics and the Online Study Group, as well as the NALS CLE Award, and Basic and Advanced Legal Training Courses.

Future Leader Development: This committee is in its second year and its responsibilities include providing seminars and programs via webinars, the Online Learning Center, or other venues specifically geared toward instructing and cultivating the future leaders of NALS.

Marketing: This committee is responsible for coordinating The NALS docket. This electronic magazine style newsletter includes information about topics covered on legal blogs and twitter, along with industry related articles and association news directly from the Resource Center Staff! E-Learn and Leading the Way are now part of The NALS docket. Marketing also coordinates E-News, the weekly newsletter sent to NALS members via email. Promotion of the various NALS programs is key. The Marketing Committee assists with the promotion of the NALS Award of Excellence, sponsors the Jett Awards, which showcase state and chapter achievements, promotes the professional development and national forum conferences, and is responsible for the NALS marketing blog and other programs to promote public awareness of NALS.

Membership: This committee’s responsibilities include assisting state and local membership chairs in recruitment and retention of NALS members. The Membership Committee promotes membership in this multi-level association, prepares and reviews all membership brochures and materials, promotes student membership, and promotes diversity in the membership of NALS. New to the Membership Committee is the Young Leader Professional subcommittee which tackles the issues and concerns of the young professional in the legal industry.

Regulation/Certification Committee: This committee monitors regulatory activity across the country and keeps NALS members up to date on what various states are doing in the regulation arena. Regulatory activity means either state legislation or rules proposed or adopted by state bar associations or state courts that would regulate how legal support professionals do their jobs, and in some instances who may work in a position with a certain title, such as paralegal.

Text Development: This committee is responsible for drafting, reviewing, and revising the Basic Manual for the Lawyer's Assistant, the Advanced Manual for the Lawyer's Assistant, and accompanying workbook materials and instructor's materials.

NALS Foundation Board of Trustees: The NALS Foundation is an educational foundation dedicated to improving the value of the legal professional through education, research, and other activities. Foundation trustees are responsible for internal and external fundraising and developing collaborative support for its programs. The NALS Foundation funds keynote speakers at educational conferences, awards grants to chapters, states, and regions, and sponsors the Scales of Justice Awards.

The NALS President does not appoint the Foundation Trustees; they are appointed by the Foundation Chair. If you are interested in serving on the Foundation, we will notify the Foundation Chair of your interest.
